One of First Homes Built at Palm Desert Totally Destroyed In Early Sunday Morning Blaze; Owner Has Close Call in Fire

Wakening at about 5 o'clock Sunday morning to find his bedclothing aflame, Herbert F. Pritzlaff barely escaped with his life from his beautiful home at Palm Desert as fire which investigators say had been smouldering for some time in the walls and attic space suddenly burst through the roof and ceiling, turning the house into a raging inferno. The loss was estimated at more than $100,-000, which is covered by insurance.

Tomorrow's the day The Groundhog, cute, Is supposed to show An inquiring snoot. But be it gay or Dark and grey, Give a hoot.

February 2 is the day we are supposed to get the hot tip on whether it's going to be six weeks more of winter or if Spring is just around the corner. ... The legend lays it on to the aardvark (dictionary word for woodchuck, alias groundhog) . . . If he pops out on February 2 and sees his shadow, he ducks back for another six-week snooze . . . If it's cloudy, he isn't frightened his odd shadow and stays out and Spring is here, tra-la.

THAT I DON'T BELIEVE In the first place, or (a) After sleeping all winter and emergprobably can't tell his shadow from Mrs. Groundhog; (b) Maybe he isn't married; (c) How does he know it's February 2? Probably hasn't got one of those pretty calendars with a Palm Springs scene in colors on it; (d) If he had, he'd stay in an look at it; (e) What college did he go to for his degree in meterorology?

Leaping from his bed, Pritzlaff attempted to roll up the burning bedcovers in an effort to smother the flames, he carried them into the bathroom in an effort to douse them with water, slightly burning his hands and singing his hair. Hearing a crescendo of crackling behind him, Pritzlaff urned to see flames consumin frapes and rugs, sparks dropping from the ceiling.

DRESSED only in shorts, Pritz-laff found himself facing a cloud of rolling black smoke, ran through it into another room, dialed the telephone and chok-ing from the acrid fumes, told the telephone operator his house was afire, then was forced to run into the frigid morning air to save his life. DON'T FORGET to have your blood typed this week. It may save a life some day—maybe YOURS! It takes only a small sample so you'll be perfectly able to get out next Saturday and see the big Rodeo without fainting over the thrills and spills. This is not a blood donation, you know—just a sample to register your type so you can receive or give blood in an emergency... Speaking of giving—that was a March of Dimes parade on Palm Canyon last Saturday (in case you thought it was a Rodeo preview) staged by Chairman Trezevant to remind you that the infantile paralysis fund needs the dimes you have left over after your Community Chest, Red Cross and Salvation Army donations—and your income tax payment. But we should be thankful; eight organizations have to divide up your Chest donation or we would be having that many more drives—about one a week. Maybe we should call January "Give Till It Hurts Month" in Palm Springs... Coast newspapers continue to report cold winds "from the desert"—meaning Palmdale. So many people have the idea it is OUR desert they think Palm Springs is piled high in snow. So the chamber of commerce sent out telegrams to Southern California Auto club offices, travel agents and other chambers informing them that THIS desert is absolutely O. K. No funds were wasted on Las Vegas, however. Palm Springs has a new publicity representative now and he has a big job cut out for him—we need some FAVORABLE publicity for a charge Al Jelsen's writers have informed this newspaper that they Springs has a new publicity representative now and he has a big job cut out for him—we need some FAVORABLE publicity for a change. Al Joison's writers have informed this newspaper that they were just kidding and everybody knew it. Maybe so, but we would rather be kidded about having champagne in our swimming pools than sand in our beds—since both are false anyway . . . We hear more talk about moving the Palm Springs Station. Just to save another argument we suggest that the Southern Pacific re-route another argument we suggest that the Southern Pacific re-route their tracks to come right through Palm Springs and use Torney Hospital for a station. The place might as well be used for something before it gets too old . . . Since we have roamed around all over the place in this column, we might as well wind up in a Palm Springs trailer park—specially since we are reminded that The Desert Sun doesn't have enough to say about them. That's true too! The Community should be proud of its excellent trailer parks. And some of our finest citizens are trailer dwellers. They take pride in their places, and some of them are miniature estates. Drive out and see them some time and get a big surprise! If on the other hand you live in a trailer park, drive around and see some of Palm Springs' beautiful homes—and be glad you don't have to pay the up-keep.

Raid Bingo Game On Reservation Twice in a Night Riverside county sheriffs played a "repeat performance" Friday night in the Palm Springs Moving in on the Lugo Mission Trading Post, near Cathedral City, at about 9:00 p. m. they closed up a full house engaged in playing "Lugo," a variation of bingo. Three operators were arrested by Capt. C. F. McCracken of the Riverside County Sheriff's office, Lt. Fred Pratt of the Banning sub-station and a U.S. In dian officer, John Martin.

The three arrested, and brought to Palm Springs for detention on a warrant issued by the Jus-tice Court, Riverside, were Eu-gene Field Broughton, John Cle-Lynch.

Later that same night the three officers repeated their ac-tivities of earlier in the evening by arresting Paul Warren Wilds Jr., and Jack C. Bender on the same charges.

The following morning Harlow Coppersmith, also of the trad-ing post, voluntarily turned himself in to face the same charges All six are free on ball pend ing arraignment.

Thousand Palms Launches Church

Students, Scouts and thousands of the winter residents and visitors know the intriguing story of the desert—its geological formation, its flora and its animal life—through the services of the Palm Springs Desert Museum.

Thousand Palms is going to have a Community church and a series of parties has been arranged at Desert Moon guest ranch to raise a building fund.

A lot for the church has been donated by the Shangra La company and another lot has been donated as a prize to spur interest in the fund-raising plan.

The parties at the Desert Moon ranch, all of them to be different are scheduled for February 18, March 4, March 18 and April 1.

Carlson was appointed at a meeting of the Coachella Valley advisory committee at Palm Des-ert last week when the matter of a desert court house was one of the main subjects discussed.

L. C. LEWIS, of Cathedral City president of the committee, made the appointment. Among other committee chairmen appointed is R. E. Launer, Desert Hot Springs, of the building code, health and sanitation committee. A co-chairman from Palm Springs will be named later for the Indian affairs committee.

Tyler Suess, County planner told the group that the county ready has started a study of the court house proposal. Data will be obtained from all county de-partments, he said, on what governmental services can be eco-nomically offered outside Riv erside. Suess hopes to have a recommendation ready for the supervisors by May 15.

Expansion of the Salton Sea Atomic energy base to be used dates reached record levels dur as a testing site for peace-time utilization of the new power, was announced last week by the Atomic Energy commission.

The commission revealed that it has acquired title to 18,024 acres adjoining the Salton Sea. A lease for $100 was approved by the board of directors of the Im-perial Irrigation district at its meeting last week. The total land in the project which will be a testing and proving grounds for peacetime atomic energy research is now 75 sections, or 48,000 acres. Early in November a contract for $1,810,655 construction at the base was let to Trepte Construc-tion co. in San Diego. The project has been in progress for several months and calls for building laboratories, administration and other structures to be completed in one Housing facilities, stores, warehouses and shops as well as rehabilitation of the runways and other structures are included in the construction program. The project will not work with atomic bombs it was stated, but rather the station will be an atomic energy proving grounds and an adjunct of the White Sands Proving Grounds at Los Alamos, N. M.

Republican leaders Hugh Scott, recently elected chairman of the national committee, and McIntyre Faries of Los Angeles, were guests at the Desert Inn Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Scott flew in from Des Moines and will vacation here for several days. . . . There are also two couples honeymooning at the Desert Inn this week. They are Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson (she was formerly Barbara Wells of Sacramento) and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCahey Jr., of Chicago. Mrs. McCahey was formerly Mary Lou Herb of the Illinois city. The two couples have been spending many hours on the O'Donnell golf course.

Among the many interesting people vacationing in Palm Lodge include Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Springs is actress Greer Garson, Jahrans (one of the early Laresting up at Normandy Village guna Beach Families) . . . Mr. Inn between scenes of Leon Gordon's "Forsythe Saga." Also at Normandy were Buddy Fogelson. Texas oil tycoon, and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Raffin (Trudy Mar-shall). Her recent picture "Dis-aster" it so happens is currently showing in Palm Springs. Mr. Raffin is the owner of Somerset House in Los Angeles. Chicagoans have practically taken over La Siesta. There now are Mr. and Mrs. Mel Straus, who have been La Siesta guests for many years, and the Lewis Letmans, hat manufacturer. Arriving in a few days for a six weeks' visit will be Dr. and Mrs.

John Itold me, that he is starting an experimental unit, a new idea in architecture, to be the prototype of many more to come and that Earl is building a contemporary house this week. He also said Harold McCord in charge of cutting at Warner Bros. had just purchased a corner on Panorama Drive and is starting a new home. The John Lymans of Hidden Valley Ranch. Santa Barbara are building their new place Monday.

The beautiful weather which started with sun really beating coupe.

The beautiful weather which started with sun really beating down makes me believe the season is really under way. One thing is certain, we'll have a late season with beautiful wild flowers. Where the snow has melted on the mountains back of Rancho Mirage, the green of a new growth is already visible and along the new flood control from Magnesia Canyon down to from Magnesia Canyon down to the Highway all kinds of desert flowers are making their appearance. While the ground is still damp, it is safe to drive your ocar up to the mouth of Magnesia Falls without danger of getting stuck in the sand. This beautiful spot, second only to Tahquitz and Palm Canyon is something to see. It is a natural-ampitheater and has been over most of the Rancho Mirage roads.

Off to Detroit for three weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holt. Harry has leased the Hal Whittle duplex in the Village tract. The other side of this duplex was leased to Mrs. Thompson, who recently sold her 40 acre grape ranch to J. Loupe, is residing here with her daughter, Barbara, and is teaching school in Indio. Doll House Five Subdues Visiting Indio Club, 34-32

Before a crowd of more than 300 Thursday evening, Doll House cagers displayed championship form to trounce Indio's county league basketballers in a hardfought battle, 34-32.

With the score tied 32-32 and 17 seconds to go, Jack Burzell attempted a field goal and was fouled. So, with the precious seconds ticking away he sank both free throws as the gun sounded. Burzell was high scorer for the home-towners with 16 points, while Bob Seipal was runner-up with nine tallies.

Last night the Dolls played Banning town team at the Beaumont high school gym.

George E. Crothers, emi-ling the enactment of the zoning ordinance which would prohibit industries being established in the area which might prove in-imical to the welfare of this resort area. "I have taken my annual vamen students in the School of Law, each with his own room, together with a law library for which he provided funds, is spending his 25th annual winter vacation in Palm Springs.

The new dormitory, named Crothers Hall, was dedicated last October 23. Judge Crothers was graduated from Stanford with the Pioneer class of 1895. In 1898 he was called upon by Jane "I have taken my annual vacations in the wintertime in Palm Springs for 25 years. I do not take vacations in the summer and see no reason why I should, when the desert offers so many wonderful advantages in the winter months. I have tried many other places in the west, but for a vacation that gives me the greatest satisfaction-I choose Palm Springs and no other,"
